Two Storytelling Workshops for Early Childhood Professionals

1. Chiny Chin Chin: Participants receive Morgan's new book with new raps, rhymes and activities that promote oracy, body literacy and visual literacy, for inclusion in their existing language programmes or storytimes. She will teach the material and how it can be used in a variety of early childhood settings. Maximum 35 people.

2. Revisioning Storytime Masterclass: A small group setting where Morgan will address specific repertoire, programming and philosophy issues raised by participants working in the presentation of oral literature to young children. A choice of Morgan's storytelling resources are available. Maximum 20 people.

About Morgan

Morgan is the author of six storytelling handbooks and for the past two decades has told stories to students in over 20 countries. She divides her time between storytelling in International and Bilingual Schools, training educators in storytelling and collaborating with her husband, visual artist Roman Schatz, to create storytelling based arts projects. More information about her work can be found at her website.
