

The Koala Went Cooee Storytime Workshop

with Morgan Schatz Blackrose

Early Childhood Educators are invited to book a multi-literacy workshop with storyteller and musician, Morgan Schatz Blackrose. The 3 hour workshop includes a 47 minute CD and resource book, demonstrated material and its application and online follow-up.

Outcomes: Participants learn how to use Morgan's CD of Australian animal songs as a foundation for incorporating Australian sign language, puppets, percussion, movement and dance into their language and storytime programmes. The different literacies explored in the workshop allow each participant to choose their most effective method of presenting inclusive storytimes. (CD contains 24 new and adapted songs for young children and an accompanying resource book of lyrics, pictures and activities to supplement the music.)

Morgan is an advocate of improving social, health and literacy outcomes in young children through storytelling. A professional storyteller and musician for 28 years, she has worked with librarians, early childhood teachers and health professionals to develop oral literature resources for implementation in libraries and early learning centres.
