

SCHATZ BLACKROSE INTERNATIONAL STORYTELLING

A resounding success

Morgan's visit coincided with our school's International Day and World Book Day, so the stories suitably reflected an international flavor. Each presentation was different, and clearly much thought went into the preparation. There was very positive feedback from teachers and students, not least reflected in the webpages of individual classes. Morgan's inclusion of rhymes and songs, rhythm and music made the sessions not only enjoyable but also promoted the concept of oral storytelling.

CELEBRATING DIVERSITY AND CITIZENSHIP, PROMOTING LITERACY AND TOLERANCE THROUGH STORYTELLING

International storyteller, author and musician, Morgan Schatz Blackrose is available to visit International and bilingual schools in Vietnam in 2010. A storyteller with over 20 years experience performing with diverse audiences in Australia and throughout the world, Morgan divides her time between teaching storytelling to Early Childhood Professionals and researching and performing traditional tales to celebrate humanity. Morgan welcomes suggestions from teachers to address curriculum outcomes in her concerts. Her extensive repertoire allows her to draw on traditional world stories and present them in an entertaining format. Morgan is also an accomplished musician and her presentations are both visually and aurally exciting. 'As well as playing a vital role in the cognitive, emotional and social development of children, folktales are a medium for teaching life lessons and passing on cultural traditions and values. Creating confident and compassionate communicators can be achieved at any educational level through the implementation of regular storytelling sessions.'
